BUSY BEE 4-H CLUB

Washington County, Kansas

Kane Scheer

My name is Kane Scheer and this is my 9th year in the Busy Bee 4-H club. My parents are Michael and Cynthia Scheer. The projects I do are sheep, pigs, rabbits, Legos, and beef. My favorite 4-H memory is going to this year's 4-H Discovery Days because it was fun with the classes I took and the friends I made there. I enjoy 4-H because it lets me meet people around my age and lets me participate in fun events. Hobbies and activities I do outside of 4-H are football, basketball, and raising rabbits.

Luke Scheer

My name is Luke Scheer and I am in the Busy Bee 4-H Club. My parents are Michael and Cynthia Scheer. This year I am taking cookies to the fair and I am also taking rabbits, sheep, a pig, a bucket calf, and Legos. This is my fourth year in 4-H. My favorite 4-H memory is when my dodgeball team won first place at the fair last year. I like 4-H because I get to show animals and do other 4-H projects. My favorite hobbies are playing sports, playing with my friends at ball games, going to the pool, and sleeping.

Reid Scheer

Hello, my name is Reid Scheer. I have been in the Busy Bee 4-H club for 7 years. My parents are Michael and Cynthia Scheer. Some of the projects that I do are sheep, pigs, rabbits, beef, and photography. My parents have done 4-H before and help guide me to my success. I enjoy 4-H because of all of the opportunities that I can do, learn new things, and the friends I make along the way. Some of the activities that I do outside of 4-H include football, basketball, track, and baseball.

Maddilyn McCall

Maddilyn McCall is a first-year member of the Busy Bee 4-H club. She is a daughter of Ben and Chelsea McCall, and a granddaughter of Mike and Kathy McCall, of Washington, and Tracy and Sue Ahlquist, of Onaga. This year at the fair she is showing a goat, sheep, rabbit, and bucket calf. Her favorite memory of 4-H so far is when she received a ribbon last year for showing her bucket calf, "Chocolate Chip," in open class. Outside of 4-H, Maddilyn enjoys playing softball and baking. 4-H is important to Maddilyn because it gives her the opportunity to learn new skills and participate in the fair.

FARMINGTON 4-H CLUB

Washington County, Kansas

Charles Bruna

Charles Bruna is a four year member of the Farmington 4-H Club. He is the son of Ryan and Susan Bruna of rural Washington. He will be a sophomore at Washington County High School in the fall. His fair projects include woodworking, crops, swine, and foods. He has served as an officer and junior officer. This year, he is the club Reporter. Charlie is looking forward to the Leadership Trip to Texas this August. Outside of 4-H Charlie enjoys sports, especially football, basketball, and golf. He attends St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Washington and is a member of the Washington County FFA Chapter. He is grateful for the opportunities provided by being in 4-H.

Jackson Chandler

My name is Jackson Chandler, and I am an eight-year-old member of the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Michael and Jeri Chandler. This is my second year participating in the swine project, which has taught me a lot about raising livestock. One of the best parts of 4-H is getting to participate in club activities alongside my older brother, Konner. Outside of my 4-H projects, I enjoy playing golf and flag football and spending time on the farm. I also love riding my four-wheeler and driving my go-kart whenever I can. My favorite food is sushi!

Konner Chandler

My name is Konner Chandler, and I am a 16-year-old member of the Farmington 4-H Club, serving as President this year. My parents are Michael and Jeri Chandler. In August, I will begin my senior year at Washington County High School while continuing to stay active in my community. After several years in the beef project, I decided to switch directions and try the swine project this year, which has been exciting to share with my younger brother, Jackson. I have dedicated several years to the 4-H Leadership Project and currently serve on the Washington County FCA Youth Leadership Team. Outside of 4-H and school sports including football, golf, and basketball, I work alongside Kyle Rahe at KC Repair servicing agricultural equipment and enjoy learning everything I can on the job.

Carter Cole

Carter Cole has been a member of the Farmington 4-H Club for eight years. He is the son of Jamie and Brandi Cole and the grandson of Scott and Robin Sawin and Jim and Trudy Cole, all of Washington. He has shown goats for the last six years and has also exhibited pigs. Carter enjoys attending 4-H Discovery Days and making friends from across Kansas. He has held numerous club offices and currently serves on the Washington County 4-H Council. Outside of 4-H, Carter is active in his church, serves as a class officer, helps on the family farm, and participates in FFA, FBLA, basketball, and golf. He appreciates how the skills learned through 4-H have helped him succeed in FFA contests and develop strong leadership and social skills.

Collin Cole

Collin Cole has been a member of the Farmington 4-H Club for six years. He is the son of Brandi and Jamie Cole and the grandson of Scott and Robin Sawin and Jim and Trudy Cole, all of Washington. Collin has shown goats for the past six years and has also shown pigs. His favorite part of 4-H is attending club meetings and participating at the fair with his friends. He currently serves as Junior Vice President of the club. Outside of 4-H, Collin is active in his church, serves as a class officer, helps on the family farm, and enjoys football, basketball, and track, with basketball being his favorite sport. He feels 4-H has helped him gain confidence and enjoys breeding and raising his own show animals.

Bo Doll

My name is Bo Doll, and I am a member of the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Aaron and Jessie Doll. My grandparents are Tim and Sheri Gilliam and John and Kerry Doll. I enjoy showing goats and beef and love spending time at livestock shows throughout the year. One of my proudest accomplishments was winning Champion Junior Showmanship at the Kansas Junior Livestock Show and placing fifth at the Kansas State Fair. I have served in many leadership roles in my club and currently serve as the Junior President. My favorite part of 4-H is getting to know other 4-H'ers, spending time with my friends at meetings and shows, and learning new things along the way. I am thankful for all the opportunities 4-H has given me and look forward to making more memories each year.

Colton Doll

My name is Colton Doll, and I am a member of the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Aaron and Jessie Doll. My grandparents are Tim and Sheri Gilliam and John and Kerry Doll. I enjoy showing sheep and goats, and one of my proudest accomplishments was winning Division 1 with my goat and earning a spot in the Grand Drive at the Kansas State Fair. One of my favorite parts of 4-H is meeting other 4-H'ers from across the state and making new friends. This year I had the opportunity to attend Discovery Days, and I'm excited to be going on the Junior Leader Trip later this year. I have served in several club offices over the years and currently serve as a Council Member for Farmington 4-H. I am thankful for everything 4-H has taught me and the opportunities it has given me to grow as a leader.

Lanie Doll

My name is Lanie Doll, and I am a member of the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Aaron and Jessie Doll. My grandparents are Tim and Sheri Gilliam and John and Kerry Doll. I enjoy showing goats and sheep and have been fortunate to win several belt buckles over the past few years with my livestock projects. I currently serve as the Parliamentarian for our club and enjoy being involved in leadership. One of my favorite things about 4-H is spending time with friends, learning new skills, and competing at livestock shows. I am excited to continue growing in all areas of 4-H while working toward new goals with my goats and sheep. I am thankful for the opportunities, friendships, and experiences that 4-H has given me.

Hayden Englert

Hi! My name is Hayden Englert, and I am 18 years old. I have been a member of the Farmington 4-H Club for 12 years. My parents are Josh and Beverly Englert. Over the years, I have shown livestock and exhibited many other projects through 4-H. This year I will be showing breeding heifers, market hogs, and a market wether goat. This fall, I plan to attend Northern Oklahoma College (NOC), where I will compete on the livestock judging team while majoring in Agricultural Communications and Marketing. This summer has been busy showing alongside my brother at spring jackpot shows, where we found success with our barrows. I also had an incredible Charolais Junior Nationals, where my heifer, Nadine, made the finals in showmanship, won her class, was named Champion Division, and placed Fifth Overall Bred & Owned Heifer. Winning at that level with a heifer I raised myself was truly a blessing. Thank you to all the potential buyers for supporting me and so many other youth at the Washington County Fair. I'll be selling my barrow, Snickers, this year, and I'd love to visit with you about any of my projects!

Liam Englert

Hello! My name is Liam Englert. I am 10 years old and have been a member of the Farmington 4-H Club for four years. My parents are Josh and Beverly Englert, and we live in Washington. I have exhibited livestock and other projects at the fair every year I've been in 4-H. This year I will be showing breeding heifers, a breeding doe, and market hogs. I've had a fun summer showing at jackpot shows, playing baseball, and competing at Charolais Junior Nationals. I was excited to win my very first belt buckle by winning my class with my heifer, Nina. She'll be at the Washington County Fair too! Thank you for supporting me and all of the 4-H and FFA members in Washington County. If you see me at the fair, stop by and ask me about my projects. I'd love to visit with you!

Natalie Hatesohl

Natalie Hatesohl is a 3rd year member of the Farmington 4H club and will be in the 4th grade at Washington County Elementary. From rural Greenleaf, her parents are Adam and Lindsey Hatesohl, grandparents Gary and Becky Hatesohl, and the late Gary and Sue Cossman of Jetmore. Natalie's 4H projects include beef, foods and nutrition, arts and crafts, sewing and textiles, and buymanship. 4H has helped Natalie learn new skills such as sewing and allowed her freedom of creativity with her arts and crafts projects. Natalie's hobbies include gymnastics, softball, drawing, singing, and tagging along to the farm with her dad and grandpa.

Noah Hatesohl

Noah Hatesohl is a 3rd year member of the Farmington 4H club and will be in the 6th grade at Washington County Elementary. From rural Greenleaf, his parents are Adam and Lindsey Hatesohl, grandparents Gary and Becky Hatesohl, and the late Gary and Sue Cossman of Jetmore. Noah's 4H projects include beef, woodworking, building block engineering, foods and nutrition, and arts and crafts. 4H has taught Noah about hard work and responsibility, and the importance of communicating with others. During his pockets of free time Noah can be found working on the farm alongside his dad and grandpa, or playing baseball, football, and basketball.

Carlie Heitman

Hi! I'm Carlie Heitman, and this is my fourth year in 4-H. My parents are Trevor and Carrie Heitman, and my grandparents are Timothy Brad and Sheri Gilliam, and Don and Tammi Heitman. The fair is my favorite week of the whole year, and I try to do as many activities as I can. My favorite animal this year is my pig, Harry Potter, and my goat Luna. My favorite memory in 4H is going to all of our spring shows with my family. I love 4H because I get to try so many different things, and meet new people. Besides 4-H I love to read, draw and play basketball.

Leo Heitman

Hi! My name is Leo Heitman, and this is my second year in 4-H. My parents are Trevor and Carrie Heitman, and my grandparents are Timothy Brad and Sheri Gilliam, and Don and Tammi Heitman. My favorite project is pigs, and I've had a lot of fun working with King Kong this year. Besides pigs, I also took projects in sheep, bucket calf, robotics, rocketry, and woodworking. Outside of 4H I love all things animals, wrestling and basketball.

Kaysen Blake Jeffers

Hello! My name is Kaysen Blake Jeffers. I am the son of Sierra and Ty Stewart and Cody Jeffers. I have a little sister named Paisley and a little brother in heaven named Whitley. My grandparents are Paul and Susan Stewart, Suzanne Brown, Shannon and Sherri Brown, and Lori Jeffers. I am 10 years old and will be entering fifth grade. This is my second year in Farmington 4-H. This year I am showing pigs named Gary the Snail, Larry the Lobster, and Sandy Cheeks. Out of the three, Larry is my favorite.

Dessa Jedlicka

My name is Dessa Jedlicka. I am the oldest daughter of Eric and Wendy Jedlicka, and I have two younger sisters, Sevie and Daliah. Next year I will be in sixth grade, and this is my fourth year in 4-H. This year I am showing my horse and sheep, as well as participating in sewing, foods and nutrition, photography, and visual arts projects. I enjoy 4-H because it allows me to meet new people who share similar interests and learn new things through different project areas. One of my favorite 4-H memories is earning Reserve in Fashion Revue for the very first dress I sewed for myself. In my free time, I enjoy riding my horse, cooking, drawing, sewing, and playing board games with my family.

Sevie Jedlicka

My name is Sevie Jedlicka. I spent a couple of years as a Cloverbud, but this is my first year participating in 4-H. My parents are Eric and Wendy Jedlicka, and I have an older sister, Dessa, and a younger sister, Daliah. This year I am showing my sheep and participating in photography and visual arts. My favorite memory so far is a club meeting at the park where everyone brought food and then got to play and go swimming. I am really looking forward to the fair because I always enjoyed attending with my older sister. 4-H is important to me because I get the chance to learn new things and spend time with my friends. In my free time, I enjoy drawing, coloring, riding horses, and walking my sheep.

Cooper Keesecker

Cooper is the daughter of Bill and Quincie Keesecker. She has been in the Farmington 4H Club for 2 years officially, but has followed her 3 older siblings around since birth. She is showing a market goat, steer, and horses this year. Cooper also loves arts and crafts. She looks forward to the county fair every year so she can spend time with all her 4H friends.

Kyah Keesecker

Kyah is the daughter of Bill and Quincie Keesecker. She is a member of the Farmington 4H Club. She loves showing sheep and horses. She loves to bake and can't wait to create a new decorated cake each year. Although sewing is not on top of her favorite list, she likes to model in the fashion review and Sheperds lead. Kyah enjoys participating in cheer and volleyball at school. Her favorite 4H memories involve our travels showing horses and livestock.

Rowley Keesecker

Rowley Keesecker has been a member of Farmington 4-H for the past nine years, exhibiting sheep, goats, pigs, and horses. Her parents are Bill and Quincie Keesecker. She enjoys 4-H because it brings together people who share a passion for animals, crafts, and many other projects. Outside of 4-H, Rowley stays involved in cheer, horseback riding, school plays, FFA, Saddle Club, and many other school activities. Over the years, 4-H has taught her responsibility, leadership, and the value of hard work. Thank you for supporting Rowley and all of the Washington County 4-H members through the Premium Auction.

Witt Keesecker

Witt Keesecker is a member of Farmington 4-H, exhibiting in beef, woodworking, modeling, and restoration projects. His favorite part of 4-H is helping younger members with their beef projects and watching them learn and grow. Outside of 4-H, Witt is involved in school plays, FFA, Saddle Club, football, basketball, track, mowing, and other community activities. Over the years, 4-H has taught him communication, leadership, and the importance of working hard while having fun. He is grateful for the opportunities 4-H has provided and for the support of his family and community. Thank you for supporting Witt and all of the Washington County 4-H members through the Premium Auction.

Wyatt Oakes Pannbacker

My name is Wyatt Oakes Pannbacker. I'm a member of the Farmington 4-H Club and have been involved in 4-H for five years, plus a couple of years as a Cloverbud. My parents are Jake and Lindsey Pannbacker of Washington. My grandparents are Ron and Mary Sue Roller of Woodbine in Dickinson County and Bill and Chris Pannbacker of Washington. Being in the beef project has helped me learn more about beef production and agriculture. My other hobbies include fishing and playing basketball. One of my favorite 4-H memories is going to 4-H Camp at Rock Springs Ranch. 4-H has helped me build my leadership skills and explore new areas of interest.

Jessa Peters

My name is Jessa Peters, and this is my first year in the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Schuyler and Staci Peters of rural Washington. This year I am showing a market hog and bucket calf at the Washington County Fair. I have learned many valuable lessons while working with my animals this spring and summer. I am excited to be an official 4-H member and participate in fair week activities. Outside of 4-H and school, I enjoy playing sports and being creative.

Jordy Peters

My name is Jordy Peters, and I am a five-year member of the Farmington 4-H Club. I am the son of Schuyler and Staci Peters of rural Washington. This year I am showing a market hog, breeding gilt, and breeding heifer at the Washington County Fair. I enjoy working with my animals, and 4-H has taught me responsibility and hard work. Outside of 4-H and school, I enjoy playing football, basketball, and baseball.

Kolton Sawin

My name is Kolton Sawin, and I am a member of the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Joss and Kristin Sawin. My grandparents are Raymond and Sara Bergstrom and Larry and Cindy Sawin. I am going into the eighth grade at Washington County High School. My favorite 4-H projects are beef, swine, cooking, sewing, and canning. One of my biggest accomplishments in 4-H has been winning the Rate of Gain award with my pigs two years in a row. Outside of 4-H, I am an altar server at church, and I enjoy playing football and going fishing.

Henley Tiemeyer

My name is Henley Tiemeyer, and I am a member of the Farmington 4-H Club. I am the son of Aaron and Jamie Tiemeyer and the big brother to Emory and Charlie. My grandparents are Mark and Ramona Tiemeyer of Morrowville and Scott and Robin Sawin of Washington. This is my fifth year showing swine, and I have also exhibited poultry in the past. Showing swine has taught me a lot about patience and hard work. I also enjoy electrical projects, foods, and agronomy. Some of my favorite parts of 4-H are attending Day Camps, especially Geology Camp, and participating in NCK Lead at Cloud County Community College, where I learned about renewable energy, drones, and wind farms. Outside of 4-H, I attend St. John's Lutheran Church and enjoy running cross country.

Charlotte Zabokrtsky

I'm Charlotte Zabokrtsky, and I'm a teenager now, so my brothers better watch out! I'm a member of the Farmington 4-H Club. Two of my favorite projects are goats and foods. My parents are Ray and Heather, and my grandparents are Larry and Shirley Lohrengel and Dan Zabokrtsky. I attend Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, and this year I'll be a junior high cheerleader. Thanks for supporting my 4-H projects!

Clyde Zabokrtsky

I'm Clyde Zabokrtsky, and I've been in 4-H for four years. I belong to the Farmington 4-H Club. My parents are Ray and Heather. My grandparents are Larry and Shirley Lohrengel and Dan Zabokrtsky. They are a big help with my projects and go to goat shows with me. My favorite projects are goats and shooting sports. I also love fishing and riding my mini bike. I attend Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Jude Zabokrtsky

I am Jude Zabokrtsky, and I have been in 4-H for seven years. Farmington 4-H is my club, and I have held an office for the last two years. My parents are Ray and Heather. My grandparents are Larry and Shirley Lohrengel and Dan Zabokrtsky. They all help me with my projects. Two of my favorite projects are goats and shooting sports. Besides 4-H, I enjoy football and fishing, and I'm a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Hanover 4-H Club

Washington County, Kansas

Dakota Jueneman

My name is Dakota Jueneman, and I am a member of the Hanover 4-H Club. My parents are Roger and Liane Jueneman. This is my second year in 4-H, and this year I am showing pigs, horses, and the pet show, along with photography, buymanship, cooking, and arts and crafts projects. My favorite part of 4-H is showing my animals, looking around the barns, playing tennis, and spending time with friends during fair week. Outside of 4-H, I enjoy riding horses, bonding with my animals, and helping pick up trash. I am proud to have been named Overall Grand Champion in Walk-Trot and Pleasure for the 8–12 age division at the National Pinto Horse Association.

Laicee Jueneman

My name is Laicee Jueneman, and I am a member of the Hanover 4-H Club. My parents are Roger and Liane Jueneman. This is my eighth year in 4-H, and this year I am showing two horses and a pig while also exhibiting photography, buymanship, cooking, and arts and crafts projects. My favorite part of 4-H is working with my animals and spending time with friends during fair week. Outside of 4-H, I enjoy showing horses, drawing, and reading. Through 4-H, I have earned a Kansas 4-H State Show title and a Reserve Youth Champion title at the Nebraska Pinto Horse Show, and I am thankful for the responsibility and life lessons 4-H has taught me.

Taelor Jueneman

Hi! My name is Taelor Jueneman, and I am a member of the Hanover 4-H Club. My parents are Roger and Liane Jueneman. I have been showing pigs at the Washington County Fair for five years and enjoy the bond that develops between people and their animals. Showing pigs has taught me responsibility and other important life skills that I know will help me every day. I am thankful for everything 4-H has taught me.

Wyat Jueneman

My name is Wyatt Jueneman, and I am a member of the Hanover 4-H Club. My parents are Roger and Liane Jueneman. This is my fourth year in 4-H, and this year I am showing pigs while also exhibiting photography, buymanship, cooking, arts and crafts, and LEGO projects. My favorite 4-H memory is showing my pig during my first year, and I enjoy spending time with friends and working with animals at the fair. Outside of 4-H, I enjoy riding dirt bikes, swimming, and fixing things. 4-H has taught me responsibility and given me the opportunity to work with animals.

Kamryn O'Dell

My name is Kamryn O'Dell, and I am a member of the Hanover 4-H Club. I have been involved in 4-H for eight years, and this year I am showing two steers at the fair. My favorite 4-H memory is getting the cattle washed and ready to show on show day. I enjoy 4-H because it teaches responsibility from a young age and has helped me make many new friends. The life skills I've learned through 4-H will stay with me for years to come.

Kaylyn O'Dell

My name is Kaylyn O'Dell, and I am a member of the Hanover 4-H Club. I have been involved in 4-H since preschool, and this year I am showing two steers. One of my favorite parts of 4-H is spending the week at the fair with friends and seeing everyone's hard work pay off. I enjoy 4-H because it gives me opportunities to learn new skills, challenge myself, and make lasting memories. I am thankful for everything 4-H has taught me and the person it has helped me become.

HAPPY WORKERS 4-H CLUB

Washington County, Kansas

Boyd Meyer

Hello! My name is Boyd Meyer, and I am a member of the Happy Workers 4-H Club. My parents are Mitchell and Whitney Meyer. This is my second year in 4-H and my first year showing swine. I enjoy 4-H because it's fun showing animals and spending fair week with all my friends. I've learned a lot about raising animals, and I'm excited to continue learning through 4-H. Thank you for supporting my 4-H project!

Zoe Sawin

Hi! My name is Zoe Sawin, and I am the daughter of Courtney and Abigail Sawin. My grandparents are Don (Chic) and Kelly Minge of Bremen, Lonnie and Mary Sawin of Washington, and Virginia Hawley of Thonotosassa, Florida. I have been a member of the Happy Workers 4-H Club since 2018, and my favorite project is goats. One of my favorite 4-H memories was winning Grand Champion with my first home-raised goat, Latte, after bottle-feeding her for her first six weeks of life. Outside of 4-H, I enjoy reading, kayaking, playing in my high school band, and attending Junior Leadership trips. Thank you for supporting our organization, our youth, and the Premium Auction!

LINN LIVEWIRES 4-H CLUB

Washington County, Kansas

Emery Dittmer

My name is Emery Dittmer. I am the daughter of Dylan and Marissa Dittmer of Linn. I am 11 years old, a 6th grader at Linn Lutheran School and a member of Zion Lutheran church. I enjoy drawing, listening to music, cooking and caring for my animals. This is my 5th year in the Linn Livewires 4-H club. My years in 4-H have taught me many things including confidence, speaking in front of a crowd, patience while training an ornery hog or ripping out a seam in a sewing project, perseverance when a batch of cookies doesn't turn out right the night before judging and embracing every moment in between. The skills I have learned from 4-H will last a lifetime.

Jericho Dittmer

My name is Jericho Dittmer. I am the daughter of Dylan and Marissa Dittmer of Linn. I am 9 years old, a 3rd grader at Linn Lutheran School and a member of Zion Lutheran church. I enjoy riding my bike, swimming, tumbling and spending time with my friends. This is my 2nd year in the Linn Livewires 4-H Club. I participate in a variety of different projects such as clothing construction, swine, foods and nutrition, visual arts and the favorite foods show. While preparing for the fair and other 4-H events can be stressful it is always worth the effort when we get to show off our hard work at the fair and even better that we get to share that time with our friends and family. I am excited for my future years as a 4-Her.

Brogan Herrs

My name is Brogan Herrs, and I am the son of Que and Tammy Herrs of Linn, Kansas. I have been a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H Club for the past seven years. I am proud to be a third-generation 4-H member, following in the footsteps of my dad, Grandma Jo, Grandma Chris, and Grandpa Armin who were all active in 4-H. This year, I am showing three pigs at the county fair. One of the things I enjoy most about 4-H is spending time with my friends at meetings and during fair week. My favorite 4-H memory is participating in the Barnyard Olympics and having a water fight with the hoses afterward. Outside of 4-H, I enjoy spending time outdoors. Some of my favorite activities include fishing, hunting, and riding my dirt bike.

Gavin Herrs

My name is Gavin Herrs, and I am the son of Que and Tammy Herrs of Linn, Kansas. I have been a member of the Linn High School FFA Chapter for the past two years and was previously a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H Club for nine years. Over the years, I have especially enjoyed showing pigs. Since my family raises our own pigs, I have the opportunity to care for them from the day they are born until fair time. This experience has taught me responsibility, hard work, and the importance of dedication. My favorite 4-H memory was winning Grand Champion Market Hog. Outside of FFA and 4-H, I enjoy playing football, basketball, golf, hunting and riding dirtbikes with my brother and cousins.

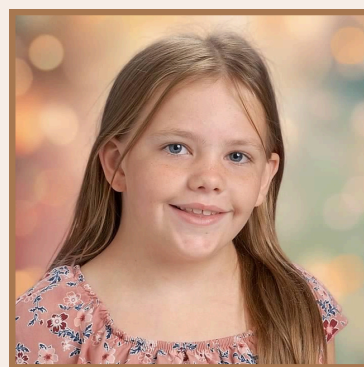

Clarabelle Meenen

My name is Clarabelle Meenen and this is my 6th year in the Linn Livewires 4-H Club. I live in Strawberry Township, near Linn, KS with my dad and mom, Mark and Miranda Meenen. This year I am bringing a pig, foods & nutrition, buymanship, arts and crafts, and the reading project to the fair. One of my favorite 4-H memories or traditions is that a couple of friends and I throw my sister, Nora, a surprise birthday party every year and decorate our trailer. I enjoy 4-H and it's important to me because I get to learn new experiences and become a leader for all of the younger 4-Hers. Outside of 4-H I do volleyball, basketball, track, cheer, and softball.

Bennett Meenen

My name is Bennett Meenen and this is my 4th year in the Linn Livewires 4-H Club. I live in Strawberry Township. My hobbies outside of 4-H are farming, hunting, fishing, and hanging out with friends. I farm with my dad and my grandpa. This year in 4-H I have a pig, and am taking foods, decorated cupcakes, and the reading project. I also did Shooting Sports, which I really liked. My favorite memory from the fair was when we had a bike derby. 4-H helps me with public speaking, and learning other valuable skills, like running a meeting and working with my animals. I have made many friends in 4-H.

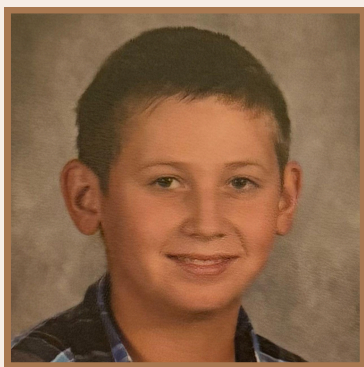

Nora Meenen

My name is Nora Meenen and this is my 2nd year in the Linn Livewires 4-H Club. I live in the country with my Dad, Mark Meenen, and my Mom, Miranda Meenen. This year I am bringing a pig, foods, and the reading project. Outside of 4-H, I like to do Baton Twirling Competitions, Softball, and hanging out with my friends. I joined 4-H because it is really fun and because you get to meet new people. My favorite memory from 4-H is showing my bucket calf, Daisy, last year. In 4-H I learn about public speaking and also get to learn about lots of different projects.

Deavon Ohlde

My name is Deavon Ohlde, and this is my 10th year in 4-H with the Linn Livewires 4-H Club. My parents are Clayton and Andrea Ohlde. This year at the Fair I have a Market Steer, a Yearling heifer and a Cow Calf Pair. We have a Spring herd at home where I help calve them out, get them ready for grass and watch them grow. Some of my hobbies and activities I like to do are hunting and messing with my calves. 4-H teaches me how to help the younger youth learn more about their projects and how to be a good leader.

Ian Ohlde

My name is Ian Ohlde and this is my 6th year in 4-H with the Linn Livewires 4-H Club. My parents are Clayton and Andrea Ohlde. This year for the Fair I took 2 barrows. 1 Hampshire and 1 Crossbred. Some of my favorite things about 4-H are going to the Fair and seeing my friends and enjoying all the activities. When I'm not doing 4-H things I love to go hunting and fishing. 4-H is important to me because it teaches me responsibility and how to help others in the community.

Reagan Ohlde

Hi, my name is Reagan Ohlde. I have been a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H Club for three years. My parents are Justin and Becky Ohlde, and my grandparents are Steve and Cindi Ohlde. This year at the fair, I will be showing my pig, Hurricane; my heifer calf, Gabby; and my yearling heifer, Spiral. I will also have projects in baked goods and Legos. One of my favorite things about being in 4-H is how much we get to help our community.

Byron Tipton

My name is Byron Tipton and I am nine years old. My parents are Clint and D'Ambra Tipton. I am a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H club. This is my third year in 4-H and my first year taking a market goat. I am also taking a bucket calf to fair and participated in shooting sports. I enjoy showing my animals at fair. Outside of 4-H I enjoy bike riding, shooting my BB gun and checking cows with my Dad. 4-H teaches me hard work and responsibility.

Gaines Wendland

My name is Gaines Wendland and this is my 3rd year in 4-H. I am a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H group. I live outside of Greenleaf, KS with my parents Josh and Danele Wendland. This year, I am taking a second year bucket calf to the fair. I am already planning to take her next year as a cow/calf pair. I also have a breeding goat and a market goat. My favorite part of 4-H are the opportunities to try new things and make new friends. I love helping out on the farm, especially when I get to run the equipment. I like to build things out of scrap wood, take things apart, and spend time outdoors.

Gaige Wendland

My name is Gaige Wendland and this is my 8th year in 4-H. I am a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H group. I live outside of Greenleaf, Kansas with my parents, Josh and Danele Wendland. Our family runs a cow/calf operation along with farming several acres. This year I am showing a steer, breeding heifer, market goat, and a breeding goat. Being a member of 4-H has taught me many valuable skills and great friendships. Outside of 4-H, I like helping on the farm working cattle, running the grain cart, swathing, and baling.

Gracen Wendland

My name is Gracen Wendland and this is my 8th year in 4-H. I am a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H group. I live outside of Greenleaf, KS with my parents, Josh and Danele Wendland. This year I am showing a steer, breeding heifer, market goat, and a breeding goat. Besides animals, I am taking photography, horticulture, and visual arts projects. 4-H has allowed me many opportunities to grow life skills and create friendships with others. In my free time, I like building and designing, learning about WWI and WW2, and drawing. My favorite 4-H memory is when I won Supreme Breeding Beef.

Grainger Wendland

My name is Grainger Wendland and this is my 6th year in 4-H. I am a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H group. My parents are Josh and Danele Wendland and we live outside of Greenleaf, KS on a farm. Our family runs a cow/calf operation, along with farming. This year, I plan to take photography and horticulture to the fair along with a breeding heifer, market heifer, market goat, and a breeding goat. My favorite projects are my animals. I have made many friends in 4-H, as well as many valuable skills. In my free time I love to fish and play sports.

Clara Wurtz

Hi, my name is Clara Wurtz and this is my 7th year in 4-H. I am a member of the Linn Livewires 4-H Club and I am one of the treasurers. My family consists of my parents, Danielle and Seth Wurtz, and my two younger brothers, Abel and Isaac. For the Washington County Fair this year I am taking swine, foods, visual arts, and a shop in style project. If I had to choose a favorite project I would choose swine because I love picking out a new pig or two each year and I love watching them grow up. This year I am showing a barrow Spot; his name is Shrek. I love being a member of 4-H because it teaches me leadership skills and helps me develop confidence with public speaking. When I'm not at a 4-H meeting or working on projects for fair, I am probably at a sports related event. I play softball, volleyball, basketball, and track and field. I also enjoy reading when I get free time. In conclusion, I love 4-H because of all the friends I have made and all of the leadership skills I have learned.

Isaac Wurtz

Hi, my name is Isaac Wurtz and I have been in 4-H for 4 years. Some of my hobbies are fishing, hunting, and working with my cattle. 4-H is important to me because it lets me bond with my animals. I also get to learn how to take care of them. This year I am taking woodworking, cattle, and swine to the fair, and I competed in shooting sports. One of my favorite 4-H memories is when I took my first bucket calf to the fair and won.

AnnaMae Brabb

AnnMae Brabb is the daughter of Kyle and Allie Brabb (Bloomfield) and a member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club. This year she is showing a bucket calf named Nala and a market hog named Pumba. AnnaMae loves The Lion King, and many of her projects are inspired by her favorite movie. She especially enjoys making crafts and decorating her bucket calf for the Decorated Calf Show. AnnaMae loves expressing her creativity and making fun memories at the fair.

Ty Brabb

Ty Brabb is the son of Kyle and Allie Brabb (Bloomfield) and a member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club. This is his third year in 4-H and his first year showing a market hog. Outside of 4-H, Ty enjoys hunting, fishing, and working on the farm with his Papa. His favorite 4-H project is building rockets, and his favorite part of fair week is spending time with his friends. Ty looks forward to continuing to learn and grow through 4-H each year.

Jalyn Fahey

I am Jalyn Fahey from the Lucky-44-Hclub. This is my 6th year in 4-H. My parents are Rocky and April Fahey and grandparents Steve and Susan Bechard and Bernie and Connie Fahey. I am in the Meat Goat project with my goat Nugget. He is a Boer goat that I have raised since birth. My favorite memory from 4-H was winning the Barnyard Olympics last year at the fair. 4-H is important to me by teaching me how to take care of my animals, learning new things, and having fun with my friends. In my spare time, I like to play sports, cheer, hang out with my friends, and go to the swimming pool.

Jordi Fahey

I am Jordi Fahey and I am a part of the Lucky-4 4-H club. This is my 12th year in 4-H. I just graduated from Clifton-Clyde High School and plan to attend Cloud County Community College to pursue a degree in Nursing next year. I am the daughter of Rocky and April Fahey and my grandparents are Steve and Susan Bechard and Bernie and Connie Fahey. I am showing a Boerwether goat this year. My favorite 4-H memory is sewing with my grandma Susan every year to construct an item to be judged at the fair. 4-H is important to me because it has taught me many life skills that I will use as I head off to college. One of my favorite hobbies is pole vaulting.

Nellie Fahey

My name is Nellie Fahey. I am from the Lucky-4 4-H club in which I have been a part of for 9 years. I am the daughter of Rocky and April Fahey and the granddaughter of Steve and Susan Bechard and Bernie and Connie Fahey. I am in the Meat Goat project with my Boer goat Boris who is an offspring of one of my two year old does. My favorite 4-H memory is attending Discovery Days in June. 4-H has helped me grow my leadership skills, given me the responsibility of raising and managing my goat herd, and learning many life skills. Throughout the year, I participate in many activities such as volleyball, basketball, track and field, cheer, and FFA.

Ada Goeckel

Ada Goeckel is the daughter of AJ and Alisha Goeckel and the granddaughter of Randy Jackson and Doug and Teryl Goeckel. She is a first-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club and is showing her goat, Oats, whose name was inspired by his love of eating oats. Ada was inspired to show goats by her cousins, Ella and Lilly, and has enjoyed learning from her Aunt Keyna and Uncle Russ. Her favorite parts of the fair are camping, spending time with friends, and all the fun 4-H activities. Outside of 4-H, Ada enjoys swimming, softball, and spending time with family and friends. She believes 4-H is important because it teaches responsibility.

Hudsyn Knox

Hudsyn Knox is the daughter of Dustin and Mistie Knox and the granddaughter of Barb and Ray Knox, Danny and Julie Marcotte, and Randie Slate. She is a third-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club and attends Clifton-Clyde Middle School. Hudsyn enjoys meeting new people, building confidence through public speaking, and preparing for the fair each year. She plans to save the money she earns from the Premium Auction for college. Her favorite part of 4-H is the friendships and experiences she gains along the way.

Gwyneth Knox

Gwyneth Knox is the daughter of Dustin and Mistie Knox and the granddaughter of Barb and Ray Knox, Danny and Julie Marcotte, and Randie Slate. She attends Clifton-Clyde Grade School and is a first-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club after participating as a Cloverbud last year. Gwyneth enjoys working with animals and learning new things through 4-H. Her favorite 4-H memory is competing in the Barnyard Olympics during the fair. She plans to save her premium money for college and hopes to become a teacher someday.

Brad Schwab

Brad Schwab is the son of Matt and Ashley Schwab and the grandson of Dwaine and Leah Schwab of Clifton and Tom and Donna Moravek of Belleville. He is an eighth-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club and will be attending Clifton-Clyde High School this fall. Brad's favorite projects are welding, woodworking, and electrical. Outside of 4-H, he enjoys fishing and riding dirt bikes. He appreciates the opportunities 4-H provides to learn new skills and build lifelong friendships.

Emily Schwab

Emily Schwab is the daughter of Matt and Ashley Schwab and the granddaughter of Dwaine and Leah Schwab of Clifton and Tom and Donna Moravek of Belleville. She is a sixth-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club and attends Clifton-Clyde Middle School. Emily's favorite projects are crocheting, visual arts, and cake decorating. Outside of 4-H, she enjoys cross country, long-distance track, and cheerleading. She loves expressing her creativity while making lasting memories through 4-H.

James Schwab

James Schwab is the son of Matt and Ashley Schwab and the grandson of Dwaine and Leah Schwab of Clifton and Tom and Donna Moravek of Belleville. He is a fourth-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club. His favorite project is rocketry, and he enjoys showing poultry at the fair. One of his favorite 4-H memories is competing in the fair dodgeball tournament, where his team has earned first- and second-place finishes over the past two years. James enjoys the fun and friendships that come with being involved in 4-H.

Jovienne Taddiken

Jovienne Taddiken is the daughter of Shawn and Nicolette Taddiken and the granddaughter of Gary and Linda Begnoche and Mark and Deb Taddiken. She is a second-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club and is showing a sheep this year. Her favorite 4-H memory is participating in the Barnyard Olympics. Outside of 4-H, Jovienne enjoys shopping, swimming, basketball, softball, and spending time with friends. She believes 4-H is important because it helps you make new friends.

Emeline Taddiken

Emeline Taddiken is the daughter of Shawn and Nicolette Taddiken and the granddaughter of Gary and Linda Begnoche of Aurora and Mark and Deb Taddiken of Clifton. She is a fifth-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club. This year, Emeline is selling her market sheep, Asher. She believes 4-H has helped her become more confident speaking in front of others. Her favorite 4-H memory is spending time at last year's fair.

Marcella Taddiken

Marcella Taddiken is the daughter of Shawn and Nicolette Taddiken and an eighth-year member of the Lucky Four 4-H Club. This is her first year showing sheep, and she has enjoyed learning all about caring for them. Through 4-H, Marcella has met many new people and gained valuable experiences. Her favorite part of 4-H is spending time at the fair and showing her animals. She looks forward to continuing to grow through the program.

STICK-TO-IT 4-H CLUB

Elliott Placek

My name is Elliott Placek, and I am a second-year member of the Stick-To-It 4-H Club. My parents are Austin and Caitlin Placek. My grandparents are Robert Duey, Bob and Sandy Duey, and my great-grandparents are Eric and Sue Placek. This year I am showing two ewes and a second-year bucket calf. My favorite part of 4-H is coming to the fair with all of my projects. I can't wait to show everyone the lamb costume I've worked on all summer! My favorite 4-H memory is going to Day Camp in Belleville with my friends, Henry and Grant. When I'm not working with my animals, I love playing catcher for my baseball team.

Clayton Strunk

Clayton Strunk is the youngest son of Ryan and Marla Strunk. His grandparents are Becky Zabokrtsky, Carol Strunk, and the late Jack Zabokrtsky and Rick Strunk. Clayton has been a member of the Stick To It 4-H Club since he was seven years old. This fall, he will be a sophomore at Washington County High School, where he participates in FFA and bowling. This year, he is showing his horse, Harley, a home-raised market steer from his cow, and produce from the family garden. Clayton's favorite part of 4-H is spending time with friends while participating in fair events each summer.

Dawson Strunk

Dawson Strunk is the son of Ryan and Marla Strunk. His grandparents are Becky Zabokrtsky, Carol Strunk, and the late Jack Zabokrtsky and Rick Strunk. He has been a member of the Stick To It 4-H Club since he was seven years old. This fall, Dawson will be a senior at Washington County High School, where he participates in FFA and bowling. His projects this year include a home-raised market steer, his horses Roxy and Larry, and produce from the family garden. Dawson's favorite part of 4-H is showing his projects and spending time with friends at the Washington County Fair.

Jonathan Wright

My name is Jonathan Wright, and I am a member of the Stick-To-It 4-H Club. My parents are Steven and Deanna Wright. My grandma is Caroline Applegarth, and my grandpa was the late Elmer Applegarth. This is my 12th year in 4-H, and this year I am exhibiting meat goats, dairy goats, rabbits, poultry, and woodworking projects at the county fair. Outside of 4-H, I am involved in FFA, KSRBA, and ARBA. My favorite hobbies are hunting and fishing, but I also enjoy trying new hobbies and projects. The best part of 4-H has always been the people. Over the years, I've made countless friendships and connections that have helped me succeed. Thank you for supporting my 4-H projects!

Kwynci Welch

My name is Kwynci Welch, and I am a member of the Stick-To-It 4-H Club. My grandpa is Kenny Welch. This year I am showing my market goat, Stripes, at the fair. My favorite part of 4-H is practicing my baking with my grandma and sewing with my Nana. When I'm not working on my projects, I enjoy spending time with family and friends, reading, swimming, and riding bikes. Thank you for supporting my 4-H project!

Sylvie Welch

My name is Sylvie Welch, and I am a member of the Stick-To-It 4-H Club. My grandpa is Kenny Welch. This is my first year in 4-H, and I am showing my market goat, Doppler.
